Part A – Material Changes and Additions that Occurred in the Corporation’s Business

In accordance with Article 39a of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports), 5730-1970 (the “Report Regulations”), the following are details regarding material changes or additions that occurred in the Company’s business regarding any matter that must be described in the Company’s periodic report, and that has occurred as of the date of publication of the Company’s 2014 periodic report¹ (the “Periodic Report”) and until the date of publication of this Quarterly Report below. It shall be clarified that generally the description included in this Periodic Report includes only information which, in the Company’s opinion, is material information; however, it is possible that the Company will include a description that is more detailed than required, including information that is not necessarily essential, in order to provide comprehensive disclosure to the reader of the reports. The update was prepared assuming that the reader of the reports has access to the Periodic Report.

1. Activity of the Company and Description of the Development of its Business

- 1.1. As of March 31, 2015, the Company is a public company, as defined in the Companies Law, 5759-1999 (hereinafter: the “Companies Law”), which holds the business activity of the subsidiary, Nano-Dimension Technologies Ltd., which is fully held by the Company (100%) (hereinafter in this Report: “Nano-Dimension Technologies” or the “Subsidiary”).
- 1.2. As of the date of the Report, the Company is engaged, through the Subsidiary, in research and development of a three-dimensional printer (3D) that prints electronic circuits (PCB cards), and the development of ink products and materials (including conductive ink) based on nanotechnology. The ink products constitute supplementary products and are ancillary to the advanced printers, and 3D printers of the Company in particular.
- 1.3. As of the date of the Report, development of some of the ink products has been completed, and the Company has begun the production process of the conductive nano-ink. However, the Company still does not market or sell them, and has not yet generated any income therefrom.
- 1.4. As of the date of the Report, the 3D printers are in advanced stages of development, and a prototype of the printer exists. However, the Company has still not generated revenue from sales or marketing of the printer. On February 25, 2015, the Company introduced the first generation (alpha version) of the printer, and on April 14, 2015, the Company held a launch conference for the Company’s alpha printer. The Company will soon test the alpha printer with a limited number of customers in order to examine and test the performances of the 3D printer and receive customer feedback.
- 1.5. For comprehensive details regarding the operations of the Company, see Chapter A of the Periodic Report.

¹ The Company’s periodic report for 2014 was published on March 30, 2015, reference number 2015-01066514.

2. Material Events in the Report Period

Update to Section 6: Investments in the Corporation's Capital and Share Transactions

- 2.1. During the first quarter of 2015, the Company completed two rounds of capital raising (private placements) in a total gross amount of about NIS 8.6 million, in consideration for the allocation of securities. As of the date of the Report, the issuances were completed and the funds were deposited in the Company's account and used by the Company to finance the ongoing expenses and R&D process. For details regarding the scopes of the capital raising, the details of the issuance of the identity of participants, see the Private Placement Reports published by the Company on January 5, 2015 and February 18, 2015 [reference numbers: 2015-01-233352, 2015-01-003568, 2015-01034462, respectively], which are included in this regard by way of reference.
- 2.2. Additionally, the Company has allocated stock options in an immaterial scope to an external advisor of the Company. For details regarding the quantity of stock options and exercise terms, see the Immaterial Allocation Report published by the Company on January 29, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-021010], which is included in this regard by way of reference.
- 2.3. On April 15, 2015, and in accordance with approval of the general meeting dated February 16, 2015, the Company allocated 370,878 stock options (non-marketable) to the chairman of the board of directors, Mr. Itschak Shrem (as part of the terms of his service) and allocated 285,715 ordinary shares of the Company and 285,715 stock options (non-marketable) to two directors of the Company (Messrs. Itschak Shrem, chairman of the board of directors, and to director Eli Yoresh), which were also allocated in the general meeting. For additional details, see the amended invitation to the general meeting published on February 10, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-029074], as well as the results of the general meeting, published on February 16, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-032432], which are included in this regard by way of reference.
- 2.4. Excluding the contents of the table below, no change occurred compared to the description in Section 6 of Chapter A of the Periodic Report, with respect to interested party transactions performed outside of the stock exchange in the period of the Report:

Date	Name of Interested Party	Purchase (Sale) and No. Shares at the Subject of the Transaction [Security No. 333013]	Price in Agoras Per Share
March 30, 2015	Itschak Shrem	10,000 shares	259.30 agoras
March 31, 2015	Itschak Shrem	10,000 shares	248 agoras

- 2.5. On May 14, 2015, the Company's board of directors approved an allocation of 559,097 options (non-marketable) for the purchase of 559,097 ordinary shares par value NIS 0.01 of the Company to "Yissum – Research and Development Company of Hebrew University of Jerusalem Ltd." ("Yissum"), as part of the addition to the license agreement signed on April 2, 2015 between Yissum and the Subsidiary. For comprehensive details regarding the terms of the stock options, the exercise price and the exercise period, see the Immaterial Allocation Report published by the Company on May 14, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-019872].

Update to Section 31: Collaboration Agreements

- 2.6. On January 29, 2015, the Company published a notice whereby the Company's board of directors had resolved to expand the business operations of the Subsidiary, such that it will begin to operate in the field of nanomaterials. In order to expand its operations as stated, the Company would collaborate with a large Chinese government company (hereinafter: the "Chinese Company"). In the framework of the collaboration, a non-binding memorandum of understandings was signed (hereinafter: the "MOU") between the Company and the chemicals division of the Chinese Company, in the framework of which both companies would begin to work in cooperation in order to establish a factory for the production of nanomaterials in Singapore in a preliminary investment scope of about USD 3 million, which will be financed in full by the Chinese Company in consideration for 50% of the shares of the new company that will be established for the same purpose in Singapore. The factory that will be established will manufacture unique nanomaterials based on an advanced technology, and will be designated for various markets, excluding the PCB market in which the Subsidiary is engaged. As of the date of the Report, there is no certainty that the aforesaid collaboration will indeed be realized, and the parties are making efforts to form a binding and final agreement between them. For additional details, see the Company's report dated January 29, 2015 [reference no.: 2015-01-020947], which is included in this regard by way of reference.

2.7. Engagement in an Agreement for Investor Relations in the Capital Market

On February 19, 2015, the Company announced that it had engaged with Mr. Kfir Zilberman, as an external consultant, in an agreement for the provision of consulting and handling services for investor relations in the capital market. For additional details, see the Company's report dated December 19, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-034639], which is included in this regard by way of reference.

2.8. Engagement in an Agreement with a New York Investment Bank

On April 27, 2015, the Company published a notice whereby the Company's board of directors had approved an outline of the Company's engagement with a New York investment bank (the "Investment Bank"), in which, and as part of the engagement, the Investment Bank would act with investors in the United States in order to raise capital for the Company in the United States. The outline of the engagement provides that if the Investment Bank meets the terms of the engagement set forth, and in the event that the Company decides to progress with this process, the Bank will be given the right to jointly lead the issuance of the Company in the US capital market. Additionally, part of the consideration will be in stock options allocated thereto by the Company in a scope and under the terms determined.

Update to Section 22: Intangible Assets

- 2.9. On February 22, 2015, the Company announced that the Subsidiary had submitted to the US Patent Office an application to register a patent on the unique ink recycling and cooling system of the three-dimensional printing cartridges developed by the Subsidiary. For additional details, see the Company's report dated February 22, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-035536], which is included in this regard by way of reference.
- 2.10. On March 31, 2015, the Company announced that the Subsidiary had submitted to the US Patent Office an application to register a patent for the calibration and direction system of the cartridges. For additional details, see the Company's report dated March 31, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-068020], which is included in this regard by way of reference.
- 2.11. On April 5, 2015, the Company announced that it had been informed by the Subsidiary that with respect to the agreement signed in September 2014 between the Subsidiary and "Yissum" – Research and Development Company of Hebrew University of Jerusalem Ltd. (hereinafter: "Yissum"), relating to a license agreement that provided the Subsidiary with an exclusive right to use the registered patents owned by Yissum (the "License Agreement"), on April 2, 2015, an addendum to the License Agreement between the Subsidiary and Yissum was signed, which expands the license provided to the Subsidiary within the license agreement for the sale of silver nano-ink to additional markets (hereinafter: the "Addendum to the License Agreement" and the "Expanded License"). The License Agreement signed in September 2014 included a license for the production of silver nanoparticles in the field of printed electronic circuits (PCB) with three dimensional printing, and in light of the Expanded License, the Subsidiary can contact other additional markets (at its discretion and as it sees fit). For additional details, see the Company's report dated April 5, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-074242], which is included in this regard by way of reference.
- 2.12. On May 6, 2015, the Company published notice whereby the Subsidiary had submitted an application to register a patent to the US Patent Office for a method of converting Gerber files (for the production of electronic cards – PCB) for three-dimensional printing and the application of ink injection technology. The patent describes the direct printing system of the multi-layer electronic cards (PCB) with ink injection technology. For additional details, see the Company's report dated May 6, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-013077], which is included in this regard by way of reference.

Update to Section 32: Legal Proceedings

On March 21, 2015, a third party filed a claim to the District Court of Tel Aviv against the Company, its Subsidiary, shareholders, officers and an additional officer of the Company. The action was filed based on the alleged claim of theft of trade secrets and technology developed by the company. The amount of the claim was said to be NIS 20 million. In addition, the Court was asked to order the Defendants, if the claim was accepted, to cease making use of the plaintiff's technology and know-how. The Company's assessment is that the claim filed against it is not established, and is considering responding with legal proceedings for damage caused thereto following the action, if any. For additional details regarding a description of the action, see the Company's report dated March 21, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-056179], which is included in this regard by way of reference. As of the date of the Report, the attorneys handling the action are unable to assess the chances of success of the action. The Company's financial statements do not include a provision for the aforesaid action. For additional details, see Note 3 of the concise interim financial statements attached.

Additional Updates – General

- 2.13. On January 19, 2015, Joseph Matalon, who served as an independent director, resigned from his position.
- 2.14. On January 28, 2015, Yemini Zvika (who had been an independent director) was appointed as a director, and on March 19, 2015, Mr. Yoel Yogev was appointed as a director. Based on the current remuneration policy of the Company's officers, the remuneration committee and board of directors of the Company determined that their fees will be the same as the remuneration of external directors of the Company (annual compensation and meeting participation compensation), which is in accordance with the minimum amounts under the Companies Regulations (Rules Regarding Compensation and Expenses to an External Director), 5760-2000 (the "External Director Compensation Regulations"), in accordance with the classification of the Company under the same Regulations.

3. Events After the Balance Sheet Date:

- 3.1. On April 29, 2015, the Company announced that the Subsidiary, Nano-Dimension Technologies Ltd., had won the best development prize in the field of three dimensional printing and equipment, in the leading conference of electronic industries known as "Printed Electronics Europe 2015," which took place this week in Berlin, Germany. For additional details, see the Company's report dated April 29, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-007779].
- 3.2. In its meeting on May 31, 2015, and after receiving the recommendation of the audit committee for the same, the Company's board of directors approved an amendment to two sections of the merger agreement dated May 18, 2014, signed between the controlling shareholders and the Company (hereinafter: the "Merger Agreement"), relating to the definition of the amounts of the "exit event" and the second milestone, which, upon fulfillment, will entitle the controlling shareholders to exercise the stock options granted to them in the framework of the Merger Agreement, while, inter alia, the amendment requested would terminate the "exit event" requirement in the amount of USD 50,000,000, the trading period determined in the Merger Agreement will be decreased and the requirement of a maximum capital raising will be cancelled. The aforesaid resolution is subject to approval of the general meeting to be convened on July 8, 2015. For the complete details regarding the proposed amendment to the sections of the Merger Agreement and the full version, see the invitation of the general meeting published by the Company shortly after publication on this Report on May 31, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-034878], which is included in this regard by way of reference.

- 3.3. In its meeting dating May 31, 2015, and after receiving the recommendation of the remuneration committee for the same, the Company's board of directors approved the wording of the new remuneration policy for officers and directors of the Company in accordance with the provisions of Amendment No. 20 to the Companies Law, 5759-1999, instead of the existing remuneration policy. The replacement of the remuneration policy is subject to approval of the general meeting which will convene on July 8, 2015. For the complete details relating to the proposed new remuneration policy, see the invitation to the general meeting published by the Company shortly after this Report, on May 31, 2015 [reference number: 2015-01-034878], which is included in this regard by way of reference.
- 3.4. Excluding that which is stated in Sections 3.1, 3.2 and 3.3, as well as Sections 2.5, 2.7, 2.10 and 2.11 above, no additional events occurred after the signature of the balance sheet.

Date: May 31, 2015.

Review Report to the Shareholders of Nano Dimension Ltd.

Introduction

We have reviewed the accompanying financial information of Nano Dimension Ltd and its subsidiary (hereinafter—the Group) comprising of the condensed consolidated interim statement of financial position as of March 31, 2015 and the related condensed consolidated interim statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the three month period then ended. The Board of Directors and Management are responsible for the preparation and presentation of this interim financial information in accordance with IAS 34 “Interim Financial Reporting”, and are also responsible for the preparation of financial information for these interim periods in accordance with Section D of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports), 1970. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this interim financial information based on our review.

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with Standard on Review Engagements 1, "Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity" of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Israel. A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in Israel and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying financial information was not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34.

In addition to that mentioned in the previous paragraph, based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim financial information does not comply, in all material respects, with the disclosure requirements of Section D of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports), 1970.

Without qualifying our above conclusions, we draw attention to Note 1.c. of the financial statements. In the three months period ended on March 31, 2015, the Company generated loss in the amount of about NIS 3,047 thousands and negative cash flow from operating activities in the amount of about NIS 2,302 thousands. The Company's management estimates that the capital raised by the Company is not sufficient to enable it to realize its business plans in a period of 12 months from the date of the approval of the financial statements. The Company's ability to continue its operations is contingent upon implementation of management's plans to raise additional financial resources. Those factors, along with other factors specified in Note 1.c., raise significant doubts as to the Company's continued existence as a going concern. The Financial Statements do not include any adjustments regarding the value of the assets and liabilities and their classification that may be required if the Company is no longer able to continue its operations as a going concern.

In addition, we draw attention to note 3 of the financial statements regarding a significant lawsuit that was filed against the Company.

Also, we draw attention to note 1.b. of the financial statements regarding the adjustment by way of a restatement of the financial statements as of March 31, 2014 and for the three month period then ended, in order to retroactively reflect the accounting method of reverse acquisition.

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Statements

Note 1 - General

- a. These financial statements are prepared in a condensed form as of March 31, 2015 and for the three months period then ended in accordance with the accepted accounting rules for the preparation of financial statements for interim periods, as set forth in International Accounting Standard 34 – “Financial Reporting for Interim Periods,” and in accordance with the disclosure provisions under Chapter D of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports), 5730-1970. One should review these reports together with the Company’s annual financial statements as of December 31, 2014 and the year ending on the same date and the notes accompanying them.
- b. On August 25, 2014, a merger transaction was completed between the Company and Nano Dimension Technologies Ltd. (hereinafter: “Nano-Technologies”), in which the shareholders of Nano-Technologies were allocated about 37.38% of the shares of the Company (without dilution) and shares of Nano-Technologies were transferred in full to ownership of the Company.
Notwithstanding the above, from a legal standpoint, the Company is the purchaser of the shares, since the controlling shareholders of Nano-Technologies, after the completion of the merger transaction, became the controlling shareholders of the Company and are able to determine its financial and operational policy, and due to the fact that on the date of the allocation of the shares to the shareholders of Nano-Technologies, the Company was a “stock exchange shell” without significant business operations and therefore the matter does not relate to the purchase of a “business” as defined in IFRS3 and the transaction was handled in the financial statements as a reverse acquisition.
In light of the above, these financial statements have been issued in the name of the Company, but are handled, from an accounting perspective, as a continuation to the financial statements of Nano-Technologies, which is the accounting purchaser in the transaction. Therefore, the comparative numbers as of March 31, 2014 and for a period of three months ending on the same date, presented in these financial statements, have been restated and reflect the financial situation and results of the operations of Nano-Technologies, excluding comparative data regarding share capital, treasury shares and loss per share presented in accordance with the provisions of IFRS3.
- c. In the period of three months ending on March 31, 2015, the Company generated loss in the amount of about NIS 3.047 million and negative cash flow from current operations in the amount of about NIS 2.302 million. In estimation of the Company’s management, the capital raised by the Company, as of the date of the merger transaction with Nano-Technologies and until the date of the approval of the financial statements, is not sufficient in scope to enable it to realize its business plans in a period of 12 months from the date of the approval of the financial statements, including the continued research and development process in which the Company is involved and the commencement of the production and marketing of the products developed thereby. In addition, since as of the date of the approval of the financial statements, the Company is in the research and development stage, the management of the Company estimates that it is expected that the Company will accrue losses from this activity in the coming period which will be expressed in a negative cash flow from current operations, and it is acting to raise the sources of funding required to increase its financial strength through raising additional capital and/or through shareholder loans.
These factors raise significant doubts regarding the continued existence of the Company as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments regarding the values of assets and liabilities and their classification that may be required if the Company is unable to continue operating as a going concern.

- d. The Company has not attached to its financial statements as of March 31, 2015 any separate financial information in accordance with the provisions of Article 38d of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports), 5730-1970. The reason for the exclusion by the Company of separate financial information is in light of the fact that the separate financial information will not be considered to be additional substantial information to a reasonable investor that is not already included in the framework of the Company's consolidated financial statements. The Company is a holdings company that has no business operations other than holdings in the subsidiary, Nano-Technologies.

Note 2 - Significant Accounting Policies

- a. The main accounting policies that were applied in these consolidated interim financial statements are consistent with those applied in the preparation of the most recent annual financial statements.
- b. Index-linked or foreign currency assets and liabilities

The following are the rates of changes to the consumer price index and the exchange rate of the United States dollar (hereinafter: the "Dollar"):

	Consumer Price Index	Dollar
	%	%
For a period of three months ending
March 31, 2015	(1.3)	2.3
March 31, 2014	(0.5)	0.5
For a year ending December 31, 2014	(0.2)	12.0

Note 3 - Contingent Liabilities

On March 19, 2015, a claim was filed in the amount of NIS 20 million against the Company, Nano-Technologies, the shareholders of the Company, officers and employees of the Company (hereinafter: the "Defendants"). The claim was filed by a third party (hereinafter: the "Plaintiff"), and claimed an alleged theft of trade secrets and technology developed thereby in the field of printing with ink injection and printing three-dimensional items, according to the Plaintiff, through an officer and additional employee of the Company that the Plaintiff had employed in the past. In addition, the Plaintiff requested that the Defendants be ordered, in the event that the claim is accepted, to cease making use of the know-how and technology at the subject of the claim.

In May 2015, the Company filed a statement of defense, within which the Company denied the claims attributed to it in the statement of claim, and argued, inter alia, that it did not steal or make use of the intellectual property or trade secrets of the Plaintiff, that the production of the ink based on silver nanoparticles originated in a license held lawfully by the Company from Yissum – Research and Development Company of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem Ltd. and on the basis of a designated formulation developed by its team, and that the three-dimensional printing technology used by the Company is materially different from the printing technology of the Plaintiff. It further argued that the patent application filed by the Company in the United States claims technological inventions that were independently developed by the Company.

In accordance with the opinion of the Company's legal counsel, the chances of the claim cannot be assessed in light of the preliminary stage of the proceeding, before the document discovery proceeding takes place, and before they are in possession of all of the information and facts related to the matter. The financial statements do not contain a provision for the aforesaid claim.

Note 4 - Interested Parties

- a. On February 16, 2015, the general meeting of the Company approved the engagement of the Company in an employment agreement with Mr. Yitzchak Shrem, by virtue of his position as chairman of the board of directors of the Company, for a period of three years. In accordance with the terms of employment, Mr. Shrem will be entitled to monthly wages in the amount of NIS 7.5 thousand, which will be increased to a total of NIS 10 thousand if the Company completes the raising of the minimum amount of NIS 8 million, for employment in the scope of 40%.

In addition, the general meeting approved granting 370,878 non-marketable stock options to Mr. Shrem, which are exercisable into 370,878 ordinary shares par value NIS 0.1 each of the Company. The stock options will vest in eight equal quarterly payments, based on a period of two years, and may be exercisable during a period of five years from the date of being granted, in accordance with the amount of the financial benefit inherent therein on the exercise date (based on a cashless exercise mechanism). The fair value of the aforesaid stock options is estimated by an external independent appraiser on the date of being granted in the amount of about NIS 624 thousand. The following data will be used in determining the fair value of the stock options:

Share price (NIS)	2.76
Exercise price (NIS)	1.75
Expected fluctuations of share prices	57.5%
Duration of stock options (years)	5
Weighted average of risk-free interest	1.07%
Expected dividend return	--

- b. On February 16, 2015, the general meeting approved a private placement of 285,715 ordinary shares par value NIS 0.1 each of the Company, which constituted about 1.4% of the issued and paid up share capital of the Company at the time (without dilution), and 285,715 stock options that are exercisable into 285,715 ordinary shares par value NIS 0.1 each of the Company to the chairman of the board of directors and an additional director of the Company, in consideration for a total of NIS 400 thousand.

In April 2015, the aforesaid shares and stock options were granted, and full consideration was received with respect thereto.

Note 5 - Additional Material Events in the Reporting Period

- a. In January 2015, the Company completed the process of raising funds from investors, in the framework of which the Company allocated to investors 1,508,572 ordinary shares par value NIS 0.1 each of the Company, which constituted about 7.5% of the issued and paid up share capital of the Company at the time (without dilution) in consideration for a total of NIS 1.4 per share and 1,508,572 stock options (non-marketable), for no consideration, that are exercisable to 1,508,572 ordinary shares par value NIS 0.1 of the Company. Half of the stock options are exercisable during a period of 18 months in consideration for an exercise price of NIS 1.75 for each stock option and half are exercisable during a period of 36 months in consideration for an exercise price of NIS 2.25 for each stock option. In addition, the Company undertook, vis-à-vis the investors, a price adjustment mechanism (hereinafter: the “Adjustment Mechanism”), whereby in the event in which during a period of 18 months from the issuance date, the Company performs additional raising of capital in the framework of which shares are issued at a price less than NIS 1.4 per share, the investors will be entitled to full protection by shares being issued to them in a scope that compensates for the decrease of the price in the additional raising of capital.

The immediate (gross) consideration received in the issuance amounts to a total of NIS 2.112 million. The net issuance consideration (after the reduction of the issuance expenses) amounted to a total of about NIS 2.065 million. From the net issuance consideration, a total of about NIS 91 thousand was attributed to a financial derivative (the adjustment mechanism), in accordance with the valuation received from an external appraiser. The balance of the issuance consideration was attributed to capital instruments (the shares and stock options), based on the relative fair values near the issuance date. Accordingly, a total of about NIS 1.542 million is attributed to shares and a total of about NIS 432 thousand is attributed to stock options.

- b. In January 2015, the Company’s board of directors approved granting 609,888 non-marketable stock options to an external advisor of the Company. The stock options are exercisable into 609,888 ordinary shares par value NIS 0.1 of the Company. The stock options will vest in 12 equal quarterly payments over a period of three years. Each stock option will be exercisable during a period of three years from the vesting date, in accordance with the amount of the financial benefit involved thereon the exercise date (based on a cashless exercise mechanism).

The fair value of the aforesaid stock options is estimated by an external and independent appraiser on the date on being granted at a value of about NIS 417 thousand. The following is the data that is used in determining the fair value of the stock options:

Share price (NIS)	1.82
Exercise price (NIS)	2-3
Expected fluctuations of share prices	53.1%-57.7%
Duration of stock options (years)	3.-5.75
Weighted average of risk-free interest	0.5%-1.18%
Expected dividend return	--

Note 5 - Additional Material Events in the Reporting Period (cont.)

- c. In February 2015, Nano-Technologies filed a US patent application to the Patent Office (hereinafter: the “Office”) for the registration of a patent for the recycling system of the ink and a unique cooling system of the three-dimensional cartridges that it develops. In addition, in March 2015, Nano-Technologies submitted to the Office a request to register a patent for the calibration mechanism of the cartridges.
- d. In March 2015, the Company completed the process of raising additional funds from investors and interested parties in the Company (hereinafter: the “Offerees”), in the framework of which the Company allocated to Offerees 3,956,545 ordinary shares par value NIS 0.1 each of the Company, which constituted about 16.5% of the issued and paid up share capital of the Company at the time (without dilution) in consideration for a total of NIS 1.65 per share. In addition, the Company undertook, vis-à-vis the Offerees, a term adjustment mechanism (hereinafter: the “Adjustment Mechanism”), whereby in the event in which during a period of 18 months from the issuance date, the Company performs additional raising of capital in the framework of which shares are issued at a price less than NIS 1.65 per share, the Offerees will be entitled to full protection by being allocated additional shares in a relative manner. The Company further undertook that in the event that within the additional raising of funds, shares and stock options are allocated at a price equal to or lower than NIS 2, the Offerees will also be entitled to a relative allocation of stock options.

The immediate (gross) consideration received in the issuance amounts to a total of NIS 6.528 million. The net issuance consideration (after the reduction of the issuance expenses) amounted to a total of about NIS 6.402 million. From the net issuance consideration, a total of about NIS 37 thousand was attributed to a financial derivative (the adjustment mechanism), in accordance with the valuation received from an external appraiser. The balance of the issuance consideration, in the amount of about NIS 6.365 million, was attributed to share capital.

Note 6 - Financial Instruments

The fair value of the Company’s financial instruments is equal or similar to their book value. As of the reporting date, the Company has liabilities for financial derivatives in the amount of about NIS 147 thousand, measured at fair value based on level 3 in the ranking of fair value (data that is not based on foreseeable market data).

Note 7 – Subsequent Events

- a. On September 15, 2014, Nano-Technologies engaged in a license agreement with “Yissum” – Research and Development Company of Hebrew University of Jerusalem Ltd. (hereinafter: “Yissum”), whereby Nano-Technology was granted an exclusive right to use patents registered to Yissum, enabling Nano-Technology to streamline the production of the silver nanoparticles in order to product conductive ink for printing electronic circuits through the 3D printer developed thereby. In consideration for the exclusive usage right as stated, Nano-Technologies will pay Yissum royalties in a scope of about 3% of the total sales of the conductive ink (which will be generated to Nano-Technologies after the conclusion of the development process and the commencement of the actual sale and production). In addition, Nano-Technologies will share the ongoing costs of the registration of the patent, estimated at an immaterial amount to the Group. The term of the license agreement is the entire lifetime of the patents and the patent applications.

On April 2, 2015, the parties engaged in an addendum to the agreement, whereby the license provided to Nano-Technologies was expanded, such that Nano-Technologies received exclusive rights to use a unique method of producing silver nanoparticles for the production of conductive ink for any purpose and any potential market defined thereby as a target market. In addition, on May 14, 2015, as part of the addendum to the agreement, the board of directors of the Company approved an allocation of 559,097 non-marketable stock options to Yissum. The stock options will be exercisable into 559,097 ordinary shares par value NIS 0.1 of the Company during a period of five years and in consideration for an exercise price of NIS 2.7 per stock option.

- b. In May 2015, Nano-Technologies filed a US patent application for registration of a patent for the method of converting Gerber files (for the production of electronic cards – PCB) for three-dimensional printing and the application of the ink injection technology.
